Manager Joe Cantillon has forwarded to the local board of strategy the best schedule of preliminary games that has ever been compiled for a Washington baseball team.

In previous years the local team has entered upon the championship campaign handicap by having only a few practice games, but the list which was announced yesterday contains twenty-six contests, including dates with some of the strongest minor league clubs in the South and Middle West. The first game is scheduled for March 9, at Galveston, Tex., and from that place Cantillon intends to gradually work his way North, playing nearly every day until he closes the ante-season series at Columbus, Ohio, two days before the opening of the American league season.

All of the players have been ordered to report at Chicago on March 4. On that evening the party of about twenty-two, including the manager and the trainer, will leave for Galveston, arriving at the training grounds on March 6. On Saturday and Sunday, March 9 and 10, games will be played with the Galveston team. Two days will be devoted entirely to practice, and on March 12, 14, 16, 17, 19, and 21 the Nationals will play Galveston.

The first clash with a major league club will take place on March 23, when the St. Louis Cardinals will play at Galveston, and the following day the same team will meet at Houston. While the regulars are playing the Cardinals Cantillon will send a second string of players to meet the Austin club in a two-day engagement.

The trip North will start on March 25, when the Nationals play at Waco, and then will come a series of games which ends April 9 at Columbus. After the final game at Columbus the team will come directly to Washington for a few days' rest before the first contest of the championship season, on April 11. Washington's first opponent in the pennant race will probably be Boston.

It is doubtful if Manager Cantillon will visit this city until he comes with the club from the training trip. He is now in Chicago, and will come East for the spring meeting of the league at New York on February 25. Cantillon has been working all day, and Secretary Minor will attend the same meeting and meet Cantillon to arrange all the remaining details for the training season. It is understood that a couple of deals are under consideration, but these will hardly be consummated until the three officials of the club meet in New York.

Thus far Lave Cross, Charley Hickman, and Jack Warner are the only members of the team who have signed for next season, but all of the players are expected to affix their signatures to the papers within the next two weeks. Cantillon has been working all day, and Secretary Minor will attend the same meeting and meet Cantillon to arrange all the remaining details for the training season. It is understood that a couple of deals are under consideration, but these will hardly be consummated until the three officials of the club meet in New York.

"I am trying to figure out," says Cantillon, "how I came to overlook the best pitcher in my acquaintance, and a man right in my own employ. The man is Cliff Curtis, who worked at Milwaukee last season. Curtis pitched great ball—lots of games, and was a steady winner. I think he got into forty-seven games and won about thirty-six of them. Yet nobody grabbed him, and I overlooked him myself when I came to selecting men for Washington. The truth is, I guess, that I was saving Curtis for Milwaukee, figuring on staying there myself, and I carefully hoarded him up. Then, when I was called upon by Washington, I forgot Curtis in the hurry and confusion. A pitcher? Why, this man is worth any two of the minor league pitchers that were drafted by any of the big league teams."

BASEBALL NOTES.

The salary limit of the Tri-State League will probably be raised to $2,000.

It is probable that the Hudson River League will go out of business next season.

The Baltimore team has arranged exhibition games for April 9 and 10 with the Highlanders.

George Yeager, the veteran catcher, who was released by Minneapolis, has caught on with Des Moines.

George Tebeau says there is no foundation for the report that he is dickering for the Grand Rapids franchise.

Eighteen Athletics have already signed. When it comes to getting players in line at small wages Connie Mack has them all beat.

Despite Donlin's denial, it is pretty well established that Mike set up a howl when the New York management refused to pay his doctor's bill.

Every club in the American Association has valuered on Billy Clineham, of Toledo. Clineham played in Washington during the Wagner regime.

Frank Norcum, the Washington boy, has been secured by the Nashville (Southern League) club, from Augusta, Ga. Norcum started out several years ago as a pitcher, but he is now an outfielder.

Miko Lynch, who is studying law at Harvard, says that in case he is released by Pittsburgh he will quit the game and settle down to his profession. Lynch will undoubtedly be given another trial by the Pirates.

FAMINE IN CHINA.

Systematic Appeal to Be Made for Aid for the Sufferers.

Editor The Washington Herald: Knowing that The Washington Herald is uniformly fair, may I correct an inaccurate statement which it, I am sure, through mistake, published a few days ago?

The statement was to the effect that the Christian Herald, of New York, was making an effort to raise money for the famine sufferers of China. This is a serious mistake, as, up to the present time, the Christian Herald has not inaugurated any propaganda toward raising funds for the famine victims in China. Dr. Klopfers, the proprietor, has personally sent $10,000 to the famine district through the National Red Cross, but as yet has not enlisted the active sympathies of the readers of the paper. What the Christian Herald has done for famine sufferers in India, in China after the Boxer trouble, and in Japan need not be recounted here, but the generous response made by the American people through the Christian Herald in the past has convinced Dr. Klopfers that they will as gladly and as generously respond to China's present need. For this reason in the next week's issue of his paper he will begin a systematic appeal for aid for famine-stricken China. He is absolutely sure that as large a sum will be given, and probably larger, as the need is greater, as the $250,000 which was sent by the Christian Herald to Japan when that country was suffering from famine at the close of the recent war.

Hoping that you will give space to the above statement, and thanking you for the courtesy, I am, in behalf of the Christian Herald, very respectfully,

ABBY G. BAKER.

SLAIN BY TERRORIST.

Governor of Political Prison at St. Petersburg Shot Dead.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 30.—M. Gudima, governor of the political prison at Vasil Ostroff, a suburb of this city, was shot in the main street of the island to-day, and died almost immediately.

The assassin, who was a youth of eighteen, dressed as a workman, emerged from a teahouse as M. Gudima was passing on his way home, and shot him twice in the stomach. The youth also shot and mortally wounded a prison warden who accompanied M. Gudima, and who pursued the assassin.

The latter disappeared, and the police have been unable to find any trace of him, owing to the fact that the population of the island generally sympathizes with the revolutionists.

PHILIP'S NEW TRAINER.

Former Umpire Will Look After Physical Condition of Players.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 30.—Umpire John R. Rudderham, of Randolph, has been appointed trainer of the Philadelphia National League Club, and has received a letter from Manager Murray, of that club, telling him to be on hand without fail when the club departs for the South the last week in February.

Mr. Rudderham has had a long experience as ball player and umpire. He was born in Quincy, started his baseball career with the famous "Bills" of McGrawville in Brooklyn in 1885, and during his career played in Auburn, N. Y.; Portsmouth, N. H.; St. Albans, Vt.; Bangor and Lewiston, Me., as second and third baseman. After quitting baseball as a player he took up the business of training boxers. He umpired in the New England League for three seasons, and last season worked in this capacity in the Copper Country League.

NO PRO. AT HARVARD.

Capt. Dexter Denies Signing Keeler and Donovan as Coaches.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 30.—Capt. Dexter, of the Harvard baseball nine, says that neither Willie Keeler nor Bill Donovan will coach the Harvard nine this spring. The rumor has been rife for weeks that both men would put the Crimson nines on to all the tricks of the game.

Capt. Dexter refuses to say whether or not he will coach the Harvard nine this spring, which is taken to mean that Paul Coburn will do the work again, as last year, though last season was not so successful as the students wished.

Trainers at Mount Clemens.

New York, Jan. 30.—Three noted trainers of thoroughbreds have gone to Mount Clemens to fit themselves for the coming campaign on the Jockey Club tracks. They are: James Rowe, who handles James R. Keene's stable; A. J. Jovner, who will train for August Belmont, Sydney Paget, and others; and Tom Healey, who, as usual, will prepare the race horses of R. T. Wilson, Jr. If Tom Welsh, John W. Rogers, and Frank Weir could join them Mount Clemens would then harbor the six best trainers in America.

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Council Expected to Set Aside an Improvement Fund.

PLAN CHANGES IN COURT

Expect to Put File Room in Fireproof Condition—Post F, Travelers' Protective Association, Arranging for Annual Convention of Virginia Division—Daniel Henry Is Dead.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, (Herald Telephone 113.)

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 30.—Early action by the city council is expected on the resolution appropriating $5,000 for making improvements to the corporation court-room and the clerk's office. It is said that a report will be made at the next meeting of council by the joint committee on finance and general laws, to which the matter was referred. This committee, after going over the proposition in some detail, has requested City Engineer Dunn to make certain changes in the plans and to submit them at another meeting. It is understood that the alterations deemed advisable by the committee will not affect the general character of the proposed improvements, and it is thought that the plans, as amended, will be favorably reported to council.

The resolution provides for placing the record-room and the clerk's office in fireproof condition, for furnishing mail files, and for renovating and repairing the courtroom, the jury-room, and the other apartments in that section of the building. It was offered in response to a communication from the Alexandria Bar Association.

T. P. A. Plans Convention.

Post F, the local branch of the Travelers' Protective Association, is making arrangements for the annual convention of the Virginia division of that organization, which will convene in this city in May. Plans have been made for the use of Landon's Opera House for the business sessions of the convention, which will be attended by about 200 delegates. The convention will be in session two days, concluding, according to custom, with an evening banquet. The deliberations of the body will be presided over by C. E. Herbert, of Norfolk, the president of the Virginia division. Julian Y. Williams is president of the local post. The State division now has a membership of about 2,000.

Daniel Henry Is Dead.

Daniel Henry, a well-known resident, died late last night after a long illness at the residence of James A. McCauley, 802 North Washington street. Mr. Henry was seventy-two years of age and unmarried. He was a native of Ireland, but came to this city in his youth and opened a hotel, the Henry House, at the corner of Fairfax and Princess streets, which he conducted up to the time of his death. The funeral will take place Friday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Congressman Lamb Speaks.

Representative John Lamb, of the Third Virginia district, delivered an address this evening in Christ Church Parish Hall before a large audience of Sunday school children of Christ Church, their parents and friends. This is the first of a series of complimentary lectures to be given in the parish hall in the interest of the "forward movement" of Christ Church Sunday school.

Mrs. Hoy's Funeral Held.

The funeral of Mrs. Annie Hoy, wife of Thomas C. Hoy, took place this morning at 10 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic Church, and was attended by many friends and relatives of the deceased. Rev. L. F. Kelly, assistant pastor of the church, conducted the service. The bearers were John D. Normandy, W. M. Donnelly, M. C. O'Sullivan, M. C. Boone, W. W. West, and James T. Patterson. The interment took place in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Report was made at the station house to-day of an attempt last night to rob the store conducted by William Doble, at the northwest corner of Wilkes and Fairfax streets. The would-be burglars attempted to effect an entrance through a window.

Arrangements for making a trip to Petersburg, Va., February 10, are being made by Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, which will on that date confer the first degree on a council to be instituted in that city. The third degree will be conferred by District Deputy E. A. Gorman, of this city.

A meeting of the board of supervisors of Alexandria County will be held at the county courthouse Saturday morning, when various matters pertaining to public roads will be considered. It is stated that the board will not take any action bearing upon the movement, backed by many citizens, for issuing bonds to be used for the improvement of the county in excellent condition.

The reserve basketball team of the Alexandria Athletic Association was defeated this evening by Schuller's Hall by the Warlocks, of Washington, the score being 21 to 13.

Anti-Saloon League Is Busy.
Rockville, Md., Jan. 30.—State Attorney Robert B. Peter addressed the Montgomery County Anti-Saloon League here this afternoon and declared he was willing to aid in the prosecution of the speakasies which are known to exist in this county. The league will ask the county commissioners to make an appropriation of $500 to assist in the work.

Colesville Girl a Bride.

Rockville, Md., Jan. 30.—Miss Maude Elizabeth Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. T. Richardson, of Colesville, became the bride of Thomas Leo Lechler, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, this afternoon. The officiating minister was Rev. W. C. Parrish, pastor of the church.

Blanchard Randall Elected.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Baltimore, Jan. 30.—Blanchard Randall was elected president of the chamber of commerce this afternoon. The other officers are: Vice president, Charles P. Blackburn; secretary, Henry A. Wroth; assistant secretary and treasurer, James B. Hessong.

Mrs. Susie L. Nail Is Married.

Fredericksburg, Va., Jan. 30.—Edward Dillon, of Spotsylvania County, and Mrs. Susie L. Nail, of this county, were married last night at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. R. Aubrey Williams, of the Baptist church.

John C. Newton Is Dead.

Fredericksburg, Va., Jan. 30.—John C. Newton, of Stafford County, died suddenly this morning at his home in that county of heart failure, aged seventy-seven years. A wife and ten children survive him.

SEARCH PROVES FUTILE.

Tug Returns from Hunt for Missing Men in Chesapeake Ice.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Baltimore, Jan. 30.—The harbor board tug Baltimore, with the searching party headed by City Councilman Betz aboard, returned this afternoon, after a fruitless effort to gain some clue to the five men who have been missing for the last ten days and are believed to have been drowned in the swamping of a boat in which they were attempting to row from Millers Shore to Bay Shore Park.

The shore line from a point opposite Annapolis, on the Kent Island shore, up as far as Swan Point, was systematically covered for some vestige of either body, clothing, or boat, but without success. Inquiries in the neighborhood about Love Point were also fruitless. City Councilman Betz returned feeling that he had done his full duty, and convinced that further search was useless until the ice is cleared from the bay, enabling searching parties to work close to the shores.

PROXY BOARD FILES REPORT.

Flight of Virginia to Control the R. F. & P. Told in Full.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Richmond, Va., Jan. 30.—An echo of Virginia's fight to maintain her supremacy in the control of the affairs of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway was heard to-day, when the State board of proxies filed its report with the corporation commission.

One of the most novel features embodied in the paper is the memorandum of Judge A. L. Holliday, chairman of the State board of proxies, setting forth his reasons for not uniting with his colleagues in voting for William H. White as president of the road.

BOARD REMOVES DR. FOSTER

Proceedings Are Technically in Contempt of Court's Order.

On Advice of Counsel Head of Eastern State Hospital Is Dismissed. Dr. Brunk His Successor.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 30.—At a session of the general hospital board held in the senate chamber to-night, resolutions were adopted removing Dr. L. S. Foster from the superintendency of the Eastern State Hospital, at Williamsburg, for neglect of his official duties, the removal to go into effect upon the final adjournment of the board, and providing for the appointment of Dr. O. C. Brunk as his successor.

The resignation of Dr. J. M. Henderson was also accepted with the request that he continue to discharge the duties of his position until his successor shall have qualified. The resolutions were adopted by an unanimous vote in each instance, two members who had not heard all the evidence being excused from voting in the matter of the removal of Dr. Foster.

Eppa Hunton, Jr., counsel for the board, at the afternoon session advised the board to proceed without reference to the court's order. Immediately upon the decision of the board to accept the advice of counsel, Col. Lawrence and his client, Dr. Foster, left the room hurriedly. It is understood that they put themselves in communication with Judge Tyler by telephone.

The board proceeded technically in contempt of court. Hunton addressed the members at length, setting forth reasons why Dr. Foster should be removed. Several speeches were also made by various members of the board.

CONFEDERATE HERO IS DEAD.

Col. J. Catlett Gibson Passes Away at Home, Near Culpeper.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Culpeper, Va., Jan. 30.—Col. J. Catlett Gibson, one of the best known lawyers in this section of Virginia, and who served with distinction in the Confederate army for the cause of the Confederates, is dead at his home near here.

He was for forty-five years a noted lawyer, and had represented Culpeper County five terms in the Virginia house of delegates.

Col. Gibson served under Gen. William Smith, the war governor of Virginia, and was often mentioned for gallantry on the field. He commanded the famous Forty-ninth Virginia, and made a record as a hero on a number of bloody battlefields.

OPOUSE LIQUOR PERMIT.

Virginians Do Not Want Obstacles Laid in Way of Water Wagon.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Winchester, Va., Jan. 30.—In the Circuit Court of Clarke County, at Berryville, to-day, a protest was filed against the granting of a license to sell liquor at Mount Airy, which is near the United States Mount Weather scientific station.

The majority of the citizens are opposed to the license being granted, and prominent government officials are also interested in defeating the application.

W. H. Hardin Is Located.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Richmond, Va., Jan. 30.—W. H. Hardin, president of W. H. Hardin & Co., brokers, who mysteriously disappeared from his home in this city Jan. 8, has been located at Lancaster, S. C., where he is at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. P. W. Hardin, who is desperately ill.

His wife is in Savannah, Ga. He left Lancaster to-day, probably for Richmond.

Miss Daisie Fox a Bride.
Washington, Va., Jan. 30.—Miss Daisie Fox and Luther T. Partlow, both of this city, were married at Trinity Episcopal Church this afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William N. Tillinghast, the rector. The young couple left for a trip to Washington immediately after the ceremony.

Excursions.
All the pleasures of a trip to California are not at the end of the route. Comfortable and tourist sleeping cars, as well as the scenery via the Washington-San Francisco route, make the personally conducted trips of this route highly enjoyable. There are Pullman and tourist sleeping cars, as well as all trains, a fact appreciated by those who must count the cost in traveling. These excursions leave Washington three times weekly the year around. A series of high-class California tours, scheduled for this season via this route, is arousing much interest by reason of the attractive itinerary and the rates. Detailed information will be furnished those interested by A. J. Poston, general agent, 511 Pennsylvania avenue.
